WASHINGTON, May 31.—Mrs. Roosevelt and Allie M. Brown, 1894 standard bearer of the Progressive party, will speak at lunch today at the White House according to announcement made today.

A misunderstanding occurred which prevented a meeting between the two last evening, it was stated. The two will discuss coalition cabinet move, it was understood in official circles.

State Department heads indicated that they were experiencing no difficulty in getting United States citizens in Europe to return to this country. Ships are being sent to Ireland for embarkation of a greater percentage of the 10,000 foreign residents. On date, however, only a few are made reservations.

President Roosevelt today stated that the Allies would send a large number of troops to this country during the next 12 months according to advice he received from London and Paris. The two nations have already placed orders for $1,000,000,000 in war materials, mostly machinery and plants.
